Elders have told us that a time will come when the truth will come out.

Canada is in that time.

Circles for Reconciliation (CFR) is looking for Indigenous people to participate in our Circles. Circles are the way we facilitate and restore a sense of justice to the Reconciliation process within Canadian society. We have 1000 non-Indigenous participants registered for the sharing circles.

Each circle is composed of ten people (five Indigenous and five non-Indigenous) with each of the groups meeting for ten weeks for 90 minutes each week to share and discuss a large number of issues around reconciliation.

CFR is a non-profit, grassroots project that seeks to promote reconciliation between Indigenous and non-Indigenous people in Canada. The goal is to create new relationships that are based on mutual respect, sharing and mutual responsibility” (TRC 2015).

We need 1000 First Nations people to get involved in any future Circles.

Please share this with your family, friends, colleagues and network contacts.

There are several Circles that we are planning to start for the Zoom Platform for 2022 and require the input and participation of our Indigenous people.

We want to pursue our goal of Truth & Reconciliation, however, this means we need 1000 Indigenous participants wanting to join us by sharing their stories, their knowledge and their experiences with others.

The Circles are at no cost to the participants.
